DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

Figures 3, 11-13, and 15 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 7 and 8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (AAPA), and further in view of Dapkus (6,621,842) hereinafter '842.

Fig 11 of AAPA discloses a quantum cascade laser having a unipolar laser device structure [8], comprising:

7. "a semiconductor substrate [80] formed of GaAs;
and an active layer [83], disposed on said semiconductor substrate [80] and having a plurality of quantum well light emitting layers, each having a quantum well structure including a quantum well layer and quantum barrier layer and generating light by means of intersubband transitions in the quantum well structure, and a plurality of injection layers, respectively disposed between the plurality of quantum well light emitting layers and forming a cascade structure along with said quantum well light emitting layers; (paragraph 0136 of the PGPub 2004/0161009 discloses the active layer 83 to have the same structure as the present invention)

and wherein said quantum well light emitting layers and said injection layers of said active layer are formed to contain group III-V compound semiconductors, each containing, as the group V element at least one element selected from the group consisting of As, P, and Sb; [As]

and wherein, in said active layer, electrons move successively in a cascading manner among said quantum well light emitting layers, and light is generated in the process of the intersubband transition at each light emitting layer." (paragraphs 0134-0138)

AAPA does not disclose adding N to the quantum well layer composition. However, semiconductor materials with Nitrogen as the group V elements are well known in the art as evidenced by Fig 3 of '842 and column/lines 7/30-65.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to incorporate the teachings of '842 into the device of AAPA by adding Nitrogen to the quantum well layers for at least the purpose of achieving longer wavelength emissions.

8. "wherein the composition ratio of N in said group III-V compound semiconductor is no less than 0.1% and no more than 40%." Fig 5 of '842 discloses concentration of Nitrogen to be 1-3%.
